LIFE MORE ABUNDANTLY

Most people don't enjoy real power. Many people are satisfied with "relative" power. This is the seeking for external things, events, acquisitions and successes to give them power over something. Most people are chronically disappointed because that doesn't produce the permanent sense of safety and LOVE in alignment with The Source of power. I'm inviting you to throw away conventional approaches and explore your own true power at our next event.

What you now believe to be your greatest flaw will become a source of true power. You will learn how to turn your greatest seeming limitation into your greatest strength. YES... whatever you believe is limiting you now, can become your greatest source of INSPIRATION, JOY, TRUE POWER, LOVE and ABUNDANCE.

It's NOT about Self Improvement.
It's NOT about Goal Setting.
It's NOT about Doing things.
It's NOT about Working Harder.
It's NOT about Working Smarter.
It's NOT about Accomplishment.
It's NOT like anything you have ever tried or heard about before!

THE PHILOSOPHERS STONE is a technology (not a rock).
The philosophers stone oft referred to in ancient teachings on Alchemy is said to turn lead into GOLD. That's what this workshop is about. You will learn how to turn your mental and emotional "lead" into the GOLD of LOVE, ABUNDANCE, HEALTH, JOY, AND FUN.
Whatever it is that you want in life you can create with this rejuvenating technology for life.
